OUVRIE, JUSTIN PIERRE

1806-1879

5

VIEW OF DORDRECHT.

(1871. Signed.)

Born at Paris, 1806; died, October 21, 1879. Landscape, historical, portrait and genre painter. Pupil of Abel de Pujol and Chatillon. Obtained medals, second class, 1831, and first class, 1843; Legion of Honour, 1854.

The paintings of this artist have, and always will be held in the highest esteem, on account of their drawing, coloring and truthful rendition of nature. The painting here described represents, in miniature, a view of the old Dutch town of Dordrecht, with its buildings bordering on the river, upon which are various crafts of different kinds, with the traditional old mill on the opposite shore. Size, 6 x 8 1-2.

OUVRIE, JUSTIN PIERRE

1806-1879

6

VIEW OF SAURDAM, HOLLAND.

BIERSTADT, A.

1830-

7

HETCH HETCHY VALLEY, CALIFORNIA.

(Signed.)

Born in Dusseldorf, January 7, 1830. Landscape painter. Brought by his parents, in 1831, to New Bedford, Mass.; in 1857 he made a sketching tour to the Rocky Mountains and from this and other sources gathered material for his most important pictures. He was elected to the National Academy in 1861; obtained medals in Austria, Germany, Bavaria and Belgium; Legion of Honour in 1867, and Order of St. Stanislaus, 1869.

This painting represents the artist in one of his most pleasing effects, a glorious California woodland scene in early autumn, with the trees clothed in the resplendent garb of Nature, and which only Bierstadt could paint on canvas. Size, 26 x 36.

LE JEUNE, EUGENE

8

THE CARRIAGE OVERTURNED.

(Signed.)

This beautiful juvenile subject, in which Le Jeune excelled all his compeers, represents a group of five little boys and girls playing horse with a toy wagon. Two of the little rascals, who are taking the place of the horses, seem not to know that their vehicle, which they are drawing, has met with an obstruction which has unceremoniously spilled the occupants on the ground, to the abject horror of a little maiden on the left. Size, 17 x 24. See reproduction.

THE BLUEBIRD.

STORTENBEKER, PROF. P.

10

COW IN A PASTURE.

(Signed.)

A truly grand work of art, and worthy a conspicuous place in any gallery. The wonderful effect in light and shadow, which the artist has been so happy to obtain in this painting, will attest to his ability, and merit him as ranking with the greatest artists of modern times. Size, 36 x 28.

CHIERICI, GAETANO

1838-

11

THE FIRST STEP.

(1871. Signed.)

Born at Reggio, Italy, 1838; genre painter; noted for humorous interior scenes with children.

The reproduction of this plate will fully describe the subject chosen by the painter; but, of course, black and white can never express the feeling and pathos of the artist as he has portrayed them with his colors. Chierici's paintings are always pleasing, and are readily given place in the most noted collections. Size, 22 x 30. See reproduction.

Lot No. 11.—THE FIRST STEP.

By Prof. GIOVANNI CLEMENTE.

CHIERICI, GAETANO

12 THE LITTLE NURSE. (1871. Signed.)

A companion to the above. See reproduction. Size, 22 x 30.

14 SUNSET IN THE BAVARIAN HIGHLANDS.

Born at Munich, 1810; died, 1884. Landscape painter. A student from Nature in the Bavarian Highlands. His evening and sunset landscapes are very fine. In 1853 and 1869 he was Conservator of Schleissheim Gallery, and since 1869 of Munich.

The painting represents the artist in one of his best effects, that of a sunset. Size, 13 x 34.

Born at Paris, 1839. Noted for his landscape paintings. He spent some time in England, and painted several views on the Thames. He was killed on the railway at Auteuil in 1879. His works are much sought after.

A painting of unusual merit and of realistic effect, representing a farmer driving home his cattle, an approaching storm in the distance. Size, 28 x 36.

VOLTZ, FREDERICK

1817-1886

17                      HAYMAKERS RETURNING FROM THE FIELDS. (1871. Signed.)

Born at Nordlingen, 1817; died in Munich, 1886. A noted animal and idyl painter. Professor at the Munich Academy, member of Munich (1863), Berlin (1869), and Vienna (1870), Academies. Received the gold medals of 1856, 1861, Wurtemberg Medal for Art, Order of Red Eagle and St. Michael, 1867.

Every detail in the picture is worked up with the most minute exactness, even to the tapestry hangings on the walls, and will bear the closest scrutiny of the most astute connoisseur.
